we need to do that again sorry you 24 and listen I couldn't come and speak to you if asking you like now you've had time to reflect when you was in that in that tournament and you were crying um what was that like because you got some people saying ah why is he crying is he ego is this is that what what what is the reasons behind it and how do you feel now about looking back it's much more easy to Gree size that appreciate what what you really have you know we knows the press all works if you speak good don't sell we have to speak bad is normal and if you speak about Cristiano you're coming in the first page it's normal because I'm the most follow guy in the world it's not because only because of my pretty face but in everything you know why Christian is the number one follow in the world why what do you think many things there's goals football trophies trophies family way lifestyle everything because people say why they fall because they in some way they like me you understand I think and they criticize all is going to exist and it's part of the business for me this is is not a problem your question was in why you crying why you cry for example I speak last night about that when you have passion for what you're doing you cannot be worried about how your feelings if for example I cried the day that I missed the penalty which is I believe that Oak did a fantastic save okay but let's interpret it that I missed the penalty when I cry it's not because I cry because I felt that if I don't score that penalty and if Portugal will be eliminated the GNA world will collapse on me not because of that real no it's people they don't know they don't know me it's imagine that the last 27 penalties you score you
